

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

October 5, 2007

S.J. Res. 13

A joint resolution granting the consent of Congress to the International Emergency Management Assistance Memorandum of Understanding

As passed by the Senate on October 2, 2007

S.J. Res. 13 would give Congressional consent to the memorandum of understanding on international emergency management assistance entered into by certain states and Canadian provinces. This agreement would provide for cooperation among the participating jurisdictions when they face natural disasters or other emergencies.

Implementing this legislation would result in no cost to the federal government; its enactment would not affect direct spending or revenues. S.J. Res. 13 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.
